Hidden Valley High School, Tina Tuner, Assistant Principal (Roanoke County)	Yes
4.	Southwest Virginia Professional Education Consortium	The Southwest VA Professional Education Consortium (SWVAPEC) provides consistent and on-going communication and collaboration between regional PreK-12 local education agencies and regional institutions of higher education.	SWVAPEC serves the PreK-12 community by: 1) providing clinical faculty training, 2) preparing interns and student teachers, 3) coordinating Virginia Department of Education grant funding for programs that support clinical faculty professional development, and 4) supporting mentoring programs for new teachers.	Four institutions of higher education: VA Tech, Radford, Hollins and Roanoke College; Eight K-12 School Divisions: Botetourt County, Craig County, Giles County, Montgomery County, Pulaski County, Radford City, Roanoke City, Roanoke County, Salem City	Yes
5.	Margaret Sue Copenhaver Institute for Teaching and Learning	The Margaret Sue Copenhaver Institute (MSCI) is a three-day professional development institute for teachers and administrators offered each summer by the Roanoke College Education Department. The 2008 institute was its 9th annual offering.	The MSCI staff is advised by a steering committee of approximately 15 teachers and administrators. This group informs the annual themes, speakers and programs of MSCI, in an effort to provide cutting-edge professional development that meets real K-12 needs.	103 participants attended MSCI 2011. These individuals reflected 16 Virginia public school divisions, one Virginia independent school, and also included five out-of-state participants.	Yes
6.	Professional Licensure Program (PLP) for "Licensure Only" Students	This program was established in 2007 to meet the needs of individuals with college degrees who desire to pursue Virginia teacher licensure. This "licensure only" route allows these individuals to complete program requirements for a teacher's license without requiring pursuit of an additional degree program at Roanoke College.	This program meets K-12 needs by producing highly qualified, licensed teachers in a timely fashion. The program serves all teacher licensure areas offered by Roanoke College.	Three individuals are currently enrolled in PLP: PreK-6 Elementary, 6-12 Mathematics, and 6-12 History/Social Science.	Yes
